"To develop educational programs that build bridges between people through the process of creative thought, participation and a more integrative world view"

-- In Our Own Way

Don't Miss The Jesus Papers in Jesus, A New Revelation, taken from The Urantia Book.

"Simply put The Life and Teachings of Jesus in section four of the Urantia Book transformed my life to one of doubt to one of faith, from one of insecurity to one of trust in God --- with Jesus as the lens through which God becomes visible. " -- Mo Siegel, Founder, Celestial Seasonings Tea Company

New to In Our Own Way! In Our Own Way welcomes you to its official site. We are very blessed to publish a testimonial from Mo Siegel (founder, Celestial Seasonings Tea Company) as to the influence the Urantia Book has had on his life on our forum. IN OUR OWN WAY is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization founded in 1982 to encourage, promote, and develop educational programs that build bridges between people through the process of creative thought, participation and a more integrative world view. We believe education, formal or informal is crucial to an understanding of humanity. The way we choose to live our lives will determine our future and the world in which we live.

Currently, In Our Own Way is promoting three very special books that have had enormous impacts on the lives of our board members and friends. The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand (Edmund Roache, M.D.), The Life and Teachings of Jesus (Preston Thomas), and Jesus, A New Revelation (Published by Michael Foundation). To learn more and order books, click here.

The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand

We are featuring a special offer on a book we have published, The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand, that we believe can offer a unique look into comparative prophetic literature. Please explore our Website to learn more about this exciting publication.

This is a book of revelation and inspiration to the reader whose life's work is a search for truth. It is also a "must read" for those who seek to understand and interpret current world events and the future of humanity.

from Dean White, Elizabethton, Tennessee

I am deeply impressed with the scholarship, the interpretations and conclusions of Dr. Roache. He has not only given us a fascinating journey through much of the major prophesy on our planet, he has added to it the Urantia Book - a very timely and powerful source of new information and new prophesy.

The Life and Teachings of Jesus, by Preston Thomas

Listen to what others say about The Life and Teachings of Jesus. "Like the Jefferson Bible it sorts and rearranges material from the New Testament Gospels to achieve a more authentic and chronologically ordered story ... It is very well done and the footnotes are helpful. The index is quite detailed and useful as a topical reference."
